Section 2: Criminal Convictions

ESCG is keen to support students with criminal convictions to help them succeed. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you taking up a place, depending on the circumstances of the offence.

Do you have an unspent criminal conviction?YesNo

If you are applying for a course in teaching, health, social work, childcare or involving work with children or vulnerable adults, previous criminal convictions may affect your ability to attend work placements and possibly achieve your course.

Do you have a spent criminal conviction?
(Only complete this question if applying for a relevant course)YesNo

If you are unsure about what to declare please seek advice from our Safeguarding Team or we suggest you seek advice from Citizens Advice Bureau or the Probation Service, Youth Offending Team or NACRO - www.nacro.org.uk

If you have declared an unspent or spent criminal conviction you will receive a letter with an attached form. You will have 10 days to return the form to the Designated Safeguarding Lead who will review your disclosure. During this time your application/enrolment will be placed on hold pending review of your disclosure. You may be required to come in for an interview to discuss your disclosure further.

Please note that failing to complete this section or providing false information may lead to your application/enrolment being withdrawn. Any information you provide the College Group in relation to criminal convictions will only be disclosed to third parties if this is necessary in the interests of the safety and welfare of other students or staff.
