Learning Agreement

- That you have received appropriate advice and guidance on your choice of programme to assess your suitability in accordance with ESCG procedures.
- To accept responsibility for your own learning and to review your progress with the support of your tutor(s). To attend all required activities regularly and punctually and to account for any absences.
- To take responsibility for maintaining an acceptable standard of behaviour at College and whilst engaged in activities associated with ESCG.
- To agree to have your photograph taken for your College ID badge and to visibly wear this badge at all times whilst on campus.
- To complete all your work to the best of your ability and within specified deadlines, as required by your programme.
- To follow and respect published College policies, rules and regulations, copies of which are available on the ESCG network.
- That the information on this enrolment form/Learner Agreement is correct and that you will inform the College of any future changes.
- To look after all resources during use and to make sure they are properly issued and returned on time.
- To pay all fees due to ESCG within the time scale agreed at enrolment.
- To comply with copyright laws and licences regarding the copying of resources including DVDs and audio.
- If you are under the age of 19 on the 31 August of the current Academic Year we will share relevant information, all academic year, about your studies with your parent/guardian.
- We will share information about your studies with your employer if they are paying your fees.
- The College may pursue students for their examination fees if they fail to attend their examinations.
- You may be contacted after you have completed your programme of learning to establish whether you have entered employment or gone onto further training or education

ESFA Privacy Notice

This privacy notice is issued by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Department of Education (DfE). It is to inform learners how their personal information will be used by the DfE, the ESFA (an executive agency of the DfE) and any successor bodies to these organisations.

For the purposes of relevant data protection legislation, the DfE is the data controller for personal data processed by the ESFA. Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 and to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a personal learning record (PLR).

Your information will be securely destroyed after it is no longer required for these purposes. Your information may be used for education, training, employment and well-being related purposes, including for research. The DfE and the English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on their behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training.

Your information may also be shared with other third parties for the above purposes, but only where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with data protection legislation.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, details of organisations with whom we regularly share data, information about how long we retain your data, and how to change your consent to being contacted, please visit: www.gov.uk/government/publications/esfa-privacy-notice

ESCG PRIVACY STATEMENT

East Sussex College will collect and process your personal data under GDPR Article 6e (Public Task) in order for us to carry out our public task of providing education and training.

Contact details will not be used for marketing or survey purposes without your consent, which can be withdrawn at any time. However the college will use the contact information to contact you in order to carry out our duties to you, for example to notify you of a change of course date, and also to obtain data where legally required, such as destination surveys or annual satisfaction surveys.

Further Information relating to this can be found at www.escg.ac.uk/documents/policies/learner-privacy-statement/
