

FdSc Person Centred Counselling

Interview

The interview will comprise of a combination of observed group activities in groups of 8-10 applicants, and individual interviews with a member of the tutor team.

Please therefore allow four hours for the group activities and your individual interviews. The session will run approximately as follows:

Induction and questions	30 minutes
Group and individual assessment	1 hour
Individual interviews	15 – 20 minutes each

There will be timetable agreed on the day for individual interviews, and applicants are welcome to leave the campus, as long as they ensure they are back at least five minutes before their allocated interview time. There are cafeteria facilities at Lewes and Eastbourne campuses, which applicants are welcome to use and there will be a room available for applicants to wait in, until their allocated interview time.

Pre-Interview Written Exercise

Applicants are required to complete the following written exercise prior to their interview:

Please provide a short piece of written work (400-500 words), to bring to your interview, which answers the following:

“Outline your understanding of the key elements of the person-centred approach”
